TONY ABBOTT VISIT

Pollie Pedal is a cycling event that raises money for various charities whilst giving smaller Australian communities the opportunity to meet various members of Parliament.

Today this event came through Moyston and stopped at the school. The students got to meet Tony Abbott and various other politicians.

The children were excited to have a chat to Tony and get in front the television cameras and media. They were also given lolly snakes and chocolate which was a big hit!

Students took part in a drawing competition and written information as to what their drawing was about.
